I am looking forward to seeing all of your beautiful smiling faces at the Atlanta, GA reunion this year. The reunion held in St. Louis, MO in 2000 was a lot of fun. We got to meet and enjoy new found family and friends, and catch up with known loved ones. We toured historic sites and ate really good too. The entertainment at the banquet was quite outstanding which included; vocalists, a very young male comic, mother and daughter duet, husband and wife soloists, an Olympic hopeful gymnast, a senior doo-wop group, a fashion show, speakers and more! I hope that we'll show off our talents just as much - if not more - in Atlanta. If you'd like a copy of the family group picture, contact Elcardo's Photography Studio in St. Louis at (314) 361-6111.

As I'm sure you're aware, I am continuing with the O'Kelley family roots hunt and collecting documents such as newspaper clippings, funeral programs, bible records, any vital records and photos. Contribute to our family archive by sending in copies of memorabilia especially from those who have passed on.

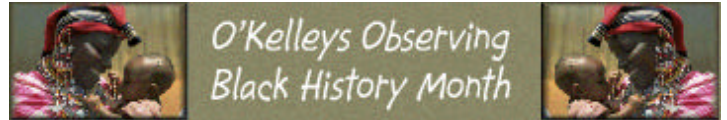

Nikki and I maintain the family website "The Black O'Kelleys" at:

<http://www.blackokelleys.net>. We pay the monthly fees which allows our family to own a domain and presence on the World Wide Web. When photos are submitted to us, either from a color copy made cheaply from stores such as Wal-Mart or Kinko's or emailed to us at info@blackokelleys.net, we post them on the website. If you have not yet visited, please come by and sign our guestbook. If you don't have a computer, go to your local library and they will show you how to connect to the Internet at no cost to you, yes for free!! ☐

February is Black History Month. This is a month to reflect on our past struggles and accomplishments. A time to become more aware of our lineage which will help us achieve our goals in the future. It is said, you can't get to where you want to go without first knowing where you came from.

Your past is a blueprint for your future.

I encourage everyone who has not done one, to take a few moments and complete the Family History Group Sheet, which is attached and on the website. This form can be mailed to me separately or with your registration form.

All records submitted (to the return address shown on this newsletter or e-mailed to: JAHLadyJ@aol.com) will be added to the genealogical databases and presented at the reunion. It is important that you send in your data (or an expired family member) prior to the reunion so that we can present the most up-to-date and accurate information to the family. The chart which shows how we are all connected on the O'Kelley line is now over six feet long. I have displayed the chart at Black History events in which I've been asked to speak and perform at and it really awes the audience. I am being recognized in this year's, 2002, edition of the Distinguished Women of Southern Nevada and I made the cover of the Henderson Home News in which I talked about our history.

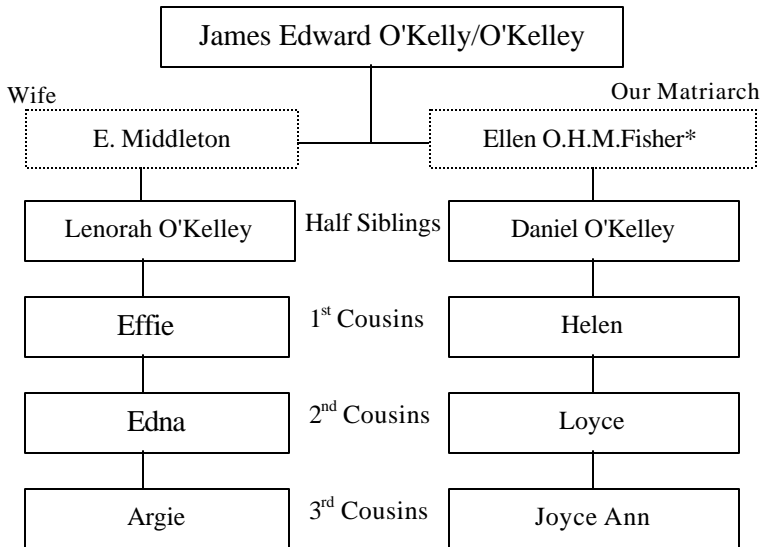

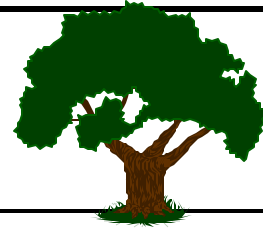

It is an honor to be recognized with this medium so stand up and be counted! ☐

New Family Found

During the holidays, I went to Salt Lake City, Utah to meet our Caucasian relatives on the O'Kelley line. My main contact is Argie Shumway. I located Argie via the Internet a few years ago. She had submitted her O'Kelley family pedigree on one of the genealogy websites. Through some investigative sleuthing, I contacted her. She was very kind from the start even weeping once and apologizing about the atrocities we, as former slaves, had been subjected to. I accepted and we moved on.

Argie and I have shared information which led us to uncovering the land where our great-great-grandfather, James Edward O'Kelley, owned a modest plantation and slaves. Ellen Fisher raised her family on this land in Perry Town, near Woodville, MS (Wilkinson County). The following chart shows how Argie and I are directly related.

O'KELLEY FAMILY NEWSLETTER

*According to records found to-date, Ellen's name based on her children's and one marriage record would be:
Ellen O'Kelley-Hilliard-Mathews-Fisher.

Here's Argie and Joyce Ann researching in the car in Salt Lake City, Utah. ☐

Family Greetings from Yvette--

James & Yvette "Archetta" Loveless have a web site featuring Black Religious Art (by James) and Glittering Abstracts (by Yvette) at: <http://www.jamesloveless.com>. Please stop by for a visit. Note the Services Section under "Comedy" where I describe how I had never been married, and James was divorced for four years (after 16 years of marriage) -- how we met and were married in just four months! It's a powerful testimony for those who feel "I'll never meet my soul mate!"

The Black O'Kelleys in America genealogy book compilation will be for sale at the reunion. Pre-orders are encouraged to eliminate shipping charges and other expenses. For those who own the book already, updates for the Relatives and Index of Family Links sections will be available at a reduced cost.

I am also seeking contributions to further the research. This historical data will provide a tremendous legacy to future generations and will help document our lineage. Tracing our roots to slavery and beyond will position us with evidence of our history for our descendants, medical purposes, possible slave reparations, and other uses.

Gifted Productions (founded by Marcia Williams) had its debut Christmas production at Harris Stowe State College on Saturday, Dec. 15, 2001 in St. Louis! The show boasted some great talent including notables like "The Legendary Caesars" with members from the 1960's, including our own George Williams and Eugene Fisher, father-in-law to Monya "Troy" Fisher.

The play entitled: "MISS GRITCH'S FIRST CHRISTMAS" was produced, written and directed by Marcia Williams. Our own JOYCE COFFEY played the landlady that everyone loved to hate. She dazzled the audience with her performance, her sequined attire, and her strong stage presence. Also coming to center stage was veteran entertainer, Joyce's twin sister, Loyce Huston! We all know about Loyce's fantastic talent for singing, but she showed us something new and different this time - the sister can ACT too! Those twins are 2-Much!

Other cast members included Teddi Edwards, daughter to George & Marcia Williams. She stole the show with her ghetto interpretation of a neighbor in the building! Teddi's talent exploded on stage and left people wanting to hear more from her! Monya Troy played Joyce's daughter and captivated the audience with her awesome singing voice as she pleaded with her mother to mend their broken relationship. Looks like the O'Kelley's are full of dual talented family members! As if singing is not enough... we act too! Monya's husband, Tony Fisher, his brother Tim, and the producer's nephew, Sterling "Butch" Lloyd did an excellent job of providing the live music for the production! Monya and Tony's daughters, Lynita and LaToya were also in the play. The event was well attended and well received. We're doing a Summer production at the Missouri Historic Museum theater on August 24th & 25th, 2002. It's an adaptation of the fairy tale, "Little Red Riding Hood", we're calling it "RED, RIDIN IN THE HOOD!" Watch for us family!
